

K9Guard

When Canine Friends Aren't So Friendly

K9Guard Canine Liability insurance can help protect you if your dog injures another person at your rented home.

What does this insurance cover?

If your dog injures someone on the premises of your rented residence, the injured party can sue you (and your landlord) for damages and/or medical costs. K9Guard provides you with a limit of liability to help cover your legal obligations if this happens. You may insure up to four dogs* on your policy and they must be listed on the policy. There are no breed exclusions (unless a breed is banned or restricted by your local ordinances), but breeds considered "high risk", or Category A (see reverse for details) are subject to higher premiums rates.

Additional coverage details

- ▶ Property damage limit: If your dog causes damage to property belonging to someone visiting your rented home, this policy also provides you $1,000 of coverage for each occurrence (with a $2,000 annual aggregate limit).
- ▶ Defense costs: Your policy covers your legal defense costs with counsel chosen by the insurance carrier for suits seeking damages where this insurance applies.
- ▶ Deductibles: Bodily injury claims are subject to a $2,500 deductible (for each occurrence) and property damage claims are subject to a $250 deductible per occurrence)

Choose your limit of:

- $10,000
- $25,000
- $50,000
- $100,000

Get a quote and purchase coverage online in minutes at nreig.com/K9

*limited to two if dogs are a high-risk breed (Category A) and intact (not fixed)

